Family

Hello Emory Grove families! My name is Jasmyne and I have worked with KidsCo for over 20 years! I graduated from Bowie State University and earned my Bachelor's degree in Psychology. At home, I am a mother to 3 children whom I enjoy spending most of my time with. I love the beach, painting, and making memories with family and friends. I am so excited for this school year! I look forward to getting to know our new families and seeing all of your little ones learn and grow!

My name is Ms. Jen. I have been a preschool educator for over 15 years. I am passionate about Early childhood education and believe in the importance of it. I am also an artist and I love to incorporate my creativity into everything I do. I have a baby boy named Oliver who attends the purple room, and it is a joy to watch him grow in the same preschool environment I get to work in.
